

PRIME MINISTER • PREMIER MINISTRE

November 4, 2018

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to everyone celebrating the 100th anniversary of Poland's National Independence Day.

This event is a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon the history of Poland and its many accomplishments since it achieved independence on November 11, 1918. It also provides a chance to highlight the outstanding contributions that Canadians of Polish descent make to our nation's success in all fields of endeavour.

I would like to thank the Canadian Polish Congress for hosting this event. Canada is a nation defined by and celebrated for its pluralism, and this event stands as an important reminder that diversity is our greatest strength.

On behalf of the Government of Canada, I offer my best wishes for a memorable celebration.

Sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Justin P. J. Trudeau, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
