Dear friends of Polish Culture

Now in its eighth season, Ludowa Nuta is embarking on another year of ambitious projects. After great success at home as well as throughout Canada and the United States, Ludowa Nuta will be touring Poland from the Baltic Coast to the Southern Highlands during the summer of 2014. A total of 16 concerts are planned and an audience of 20,000 is anticipated at the Festival in Brusy, Poland.

Our second major project is the recording and release of our third CD

Zeza wiöldzi wòdë...Kaszëbë

(Beyond the Great Water...Kaszëbë)

Na mòsce drëszbë z Lëdowô Nòta

(On the Bridge of Friendship with Ludowa Nuta)

.. featuring the spirit and music of Canada's first Polish immigrants from the Kaszuby region of Poland. Many well know artists have lent their expertise to this project including The Kaszubski Pomorski Alliance, John Gora, Ed Guca ,and Eugeniusz Pryczkowski, a promoter of Kaszubian culture in Poland and liaison with the Canadian Kaszubian diaspora.

With its May 10, 2014 release, we are hoping to find great success with this album not only in Canada, but in Poland as well.

The success of projects such as these is dependent on the support and generosity of our benefactors. We are very appreciative of all offers of assistance.

An example of the advertising opportunities available is our $500 level package. With a donation of this amount,
